restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. Bowen, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a mat-ter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AVER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value. PREPARED BY

A SENSATIONAL LAW SUIT.

Grave Charges Against Two Doctors.

Carlisle Mercury.

On Monday last Messrs. Kennedy & Kennedy filed suit for injunction in the Nicholas Circuit Court in behalf of John B. Smart against Dr. John L. Robbins and her brother, John B. Smart, had committed the crime of incest before said marriage, and that at said Bobbins' commands, Mrs. Robbins communicated to her brother her so-called confession, and that said Robbins requested that said John B. Smart should come to Robbins' house, talk over the matter and be friendly. John B. Smart says that knowing said accusation was false, he thought best to see Robbins and have a talk with him. Smart says he went to Robbins' house, and that as soon as he entered, said Robbins shut and locked the door, cocked a pistol and placed it at his, Smart's, head and demanded that he, Smart, should execute seven notes of $150 each, payable annually, the first of November 1883, and one each succeeding November for seven years. He says he did this in order to save his life, and the life of his wife and children. That at the command of said Robbins, he, Smart, agreed to mortgage his farm of fifty acres to said Robbin's wife to secure the payment of said seven notes. That in order to save his life, as he verily believed, he did execute the seven notes and mortgage, but that the notes and mortgage are fraudulent and void, there ing some claim to or interest in said notes, and pretends that he has paid or advanced some money to defendant Robbins on account of said notes. He denies that Martin has any right to or interest in said notes, or in any part of either, but that of the methods used to secure them. This is one of the most sensational suits filed in our Courts for many years, and, of course, will he a fruitful theme for commentators for many months. In addition to the petition above referred to Mrs. Bobbins appeared before County Clerk Camp-bell and made oath that at the request of her husband, and under fear of threats against her life by her husband she did admit the crime of incest, but that said admission was false, being without the slightest foundation, and was made only to save her own life, and the life of her brother and his family.

In addition to the above Mrs. John B. Smart, wife of the plaintiff, who entered into the mortgage with her husband, says the hands of the defendant, Dr. John L.

This petition, as we stated above, was Dr Robbins since, we can not give his version of the unfortunate affair. Mrs. derstand Dr. Robbins is at Dr. Martin's home, in this county.

THE OTHER SIDE.

Feeling that it was not exactly justice to the defendant to publish the statement of the other side only, we called on Messrs. Ross & Owens, attorneys for Dr. Robbins, and secured a few statements from them in regard to their client's position. These gentlemen have not, of course, filed their answer to the petition of Mr. Smart, but will include in it the written confession of ing her marriage, which confession fills sixteen, had her clothes catch from the several pages of letter paper, signed by fire that had been kindled, and she was Mrs. Robbins and attested by a witness at burned so badly she died the next day.

her own solicitation. In this statement it is said she confesses to carnal connection with her brother, beginning when she was quite young. We are given to understand that the defense will set forth that Smart made the notes and mortgage to provide for his sister and save her from the shame of exposure, at his own suggestion. That Smart and wife came to Carlisle and made the mortgage, having wife, and Dr. Wm. H. Martin, all of this it re-written by County Clerk Campbell, county. The petition filed sets forth that without once intimating that they were after the marriage of said John L. Rob- forced to make it, but said that they did it bins and Mollie J. Robbins, nee Smart, to secure borrowed money. It is also said said Robbins by threat and menances that Mrs. Robbins left her husband at his caused Mrs. Robbins to admit that she and brother-in-law's Monday in the best of brother-in-law's Monday in the best of spirits, that she never once spoke of leaving, and that after coming to Carlisle she bought her husband a present, and wrote him a letter couching in the most endearing terms, but stated that she was going to leave for parts unknown.

Br. Robbins claims that this confession was made to him without any intimidation from him, and that she made the same confession to others, of which he has written evidence which can not be questioned or gainsayed. (This we understand refers to a confession made by Mrs. Robbins to her father and brother in Missouri, after her marriage, and of which a brother, not the plaintiff, wrote to Dr. Robbins

The conflicting statements of the parties, their social position, and simple justice require that neither party should be prejudiced by a hasty formation of opinion, and the public should await a legal investigation of the facts in the case before deciding as to the guilt of any of the parties concerned.

Fashion Notes.

Some charming dresses have been made being no consideration, notwithstanding they set forth that they were for borrowed money. The plaintiff Smart sets forth that Dr. Wm. H. Martin has been assertamber, garnet, over old gold, and sage green over mouse color. The overdress is cut princess shape, with small hip paniers and is shaped in a square at the neck, and upper part of the sleeve over puffed satin. The sleeves are to the wrists, and are finished like the neck with double ruffle of Martin has now, and had before said mortgage were executed, a full knowledge

> Long trains, which are now so much worn, exact very careful making. All long trains should be against a tulle canvas or stiff muslin foundation cut exactly like the skirt. The plaits are arranged and fastened to the stiff lining as well as the drapings, and then there is a second train of fine muslin trimmed with insertion and lace. This train is made to take the dust instead of the skirt, and is changed when soiled. The lingerie train is cut from the same pattern as the skirt and basted or fastened on by fine cord on the inside of the skirt. This arrangement is quite indispensable for the production of a good effect in an evening toilet.

Governor Hamilton, of Illinois, it is said, owes much, if not all, of his success in life to the great ambition of his wife, who is an intelligent and lovely woman. She was engaged to be married to the youthful Governor while both were attending the same school in Ohio. She predicted a brilliant future for her betrothed, and persuaded him to read law. In all his political battles Mr. Hamilton has been guided by the wisdom and good sense of his wife, who, like Gen. The Commonwealth vs. Thos. Cummins. Attorneys Outwitted by Officers.

During the January term of the Mason Circuit Court, which closed one day this week, one Thomas Cummins, of this city, was indicted by the grand jury for hog stealing. The offense was committed some time during the Maysville fair last fall, an account of which was published in the Bulletin at the time of Cummins' examining trial. His trial and conviction | Company in all its appointments is excellent, followed soon after the indictment was reported against him, and his punishment was fixed at one year's confinement in the to F. F. and its sucess. penitentiary at Frankfort. During his trial his attorneys, Thomas R. Phister and L. W. Galbreath, moved for an acquittal of their client as soon as the evidence for the prosecution was all introduced on the ground that the offense proven was not the offense charged in the indictment. They claimed that if Cummins was guilty of any offense it was that of obtaining servation of peace, the following commands of money under false pretenses, instead of hog stealing. This motion for an acquittal was overruled by the Court, and Cummins' conviction followed as above stated.

A few days thereafter the attorneys filed a motion for a new trial on same grounds, which they had previously based their motion for an acquittal. This motion for a new trial was argued by both the above attorneys and during which argument they introduced some authorities, showing pretty conclusively that they were about right in their opinion of the case. Now comes the strange part in the proceedings.

Judge Cole failed to overrule this motion, at least there is no order to that effect, pretty conclusively that they were about nor did he sustain it. There is nothing to show that the court ruled on the motion at all. But, Cummins was sentenced The attorneys in the case heard of this yesterday, and let the authorities know that a writ of habeas corpus would be served on the officers this morning on their way to the depot with their prisoner, and there's just wherein the young attorneys "went wrong." They showed their "hand" too soon, and the consequence is; they were badly euchered. About the time they were expecting the writ of habeas corpus to be served; Cummins was being rapidly conveyed, to Marshall's Station, by the officers whose intention was to board the train at that point. "No Providence customed to saying, Cummins will Frankfort before another sun rises. The above is a statement of the facts in the case as a representative of the Bulletin was told them. What the outcome of the affair will be: "Time will tell:"

COUNTY POINTS.

STONE LICK.

Mr. Daniel Darnell has secured a home near Lexington and will remove there shortly with dertakings.

We understand Mr. John Bullock has rented a farm from Mr. True. Mr. Bullock are you going to make a change in your way of living? We understand so.

Several crops of tobacco have been sold at eleven and twelve cents per pound.

Mrs. Jones is anxious that Mr. Jones should apply for the Presidency of the Murphysville society, but he declines as it is too much labor. The BULLETIN is very popular in this neigh-borhood. The colored population are seeking

Mrs. Jones mashed her finger very badly with her sewing machine. She says it just " mashed it flat."

Mr. Frank Clift has bought several lots of cattle in this neighborhood. Mr. Ridgely, it is said, will remain this year in the same house he occupied last. We are glad and so is Hub.

Elder Wm. A. Morrison preached in Orange-burg Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night last. Elder Morrison is a self-made man an is an able defender of his faith.

Elder Smith preaches for the congregation at Stone Lick on the second Sunday in each month. He has some pretty tough ones to remind of their obligation to all parties concern ed when they come out to hear him. We are afraid the gospel, as is generally preached, (that is making men think they are free agents) is having a bad effect. It seems the worst part of our community is "growing worse and worse," and the good growing beautifully less. Beware of those who draw nigh unto Him with their lips white, while their hearts are from

We confess we do not know "the bull but-ting the locomotive off of the track," having never kept such companionable company Neither are we aware of anything we did not get, but we do know that Mr. One Eye Open got something he didn't want from the pen of P. E. M.

When men of easy morals and of unenviable reputations cast instructions and slurring epithets at those who are their superiors in moral worth and honesty, it reminds us of a time when standing upon the side walk of a city we observed a faithful and honest looking dog going on an errand for his master, every black and tan terrier and worthless cur ran out and gaye him a bark and snap. It taught us a lesson.

less kept on new ground.'

"In what respect?" "I find that the White Burley Tobacco s raised to a great extent in Missouri, Virginia, Tennessee, Ohio and even Texas, so that there will be a large quantity of it besides what Kentucky raises. There was a surplus in the market, and that will cause the loss of money. But besides this the quality of the tobacco is inferior."

"Do you find the quality or the curing inferior?'

"Both seem to be inferior. In Mason County the White Burley is becoming dark. It seems to lose its bright color un-

PITH AND POINT.

-The unfavorable opinion of some men is a compliment.

-One of the sweetest pictures of domestic economy is a poet blacking a white stocking so that it won't show through the fissures in his boot.—Puck.

-A cable dispatch says: "The False Prophet is reported to be within three days' march of Khartum" This is the first intimation we have had that Vennor is traveling in Egypt .- Norristown Herald.

-The theory that violins get tired by constant use is one that can not be too industriously circulated in the interest of those who suffer from over practice by their amateur neighbors.-Lowell Citizen.

-"Won't you have a glass of soda, Dorothy?" asked one girl of another at Houston's, the other night. "No, thank you," was the reply; "I haven't any cuffs on, and dassant raise my arm.— Yonkers Statesman.

-A little boy, showing great reluctance to go to school one morning, was asked the reason. "Because," he answered, "the teacher said he was going to try to put an idea into my head today, and I don't want him to be cutting into my head."

-It is customary to picture a goril's with the limb of a tree in his hand, which is a gratuitous insult on the young man who carries a cine, and should no longer escape the frown of an intelligent, humane and justice loving community. -Boston Transcript.

-"Why do women so often wander aimlessly in the murky solitudes of the dead past, brooding over days forever gone?" asks a correspondent. This is indeed a difficult question to answer. There are no dry-goods stores in the dead past .- Chicago Tribune.

-Why do all you Americans say "deepo" for station?-English Tourist. We don't. Some of us say deppo, others say daypo, and a few others depot. Now tell us why you Englishmen say "ye knaw" every six words when you know we don't know, you know.—Philadelphia News.

-"It were better that you had a grindstone about your neck-" "You needn't go any further with your remarks," said the farmer's son. "I've had that grind-tone about my neck until I'm tired of turning it. Get some other boy." And he footed it to the city to become a horse-car driver.—

-Tran-lated from the Omnibus: Professor -"Meier, where is your manuscript?" Meier -"I believe you have it there in the hand." Professor-"So? When have you it then written?" Meier - "Sunday morning at the breakfastor, rather, directly after." Professor-44I see here but no work. Will you yourself convince? The sheet is empty!" Meier-"Thunderweather! then have I out of mistake instead of in the ink-glass in the milk-glass dipped!"-Louisville Courier-Journal.

-X. has just finished a volume of musical criticisms, in the course of which he has had occasion to deal with the works and talents of his friend Y. Unhappily, just as the book is going through the press, the two friends have a falling out. With great presence of mind X. inserts a slip of paper in each volume, thus inscribed: "Erratum: P. 54, 1. 21.—For 'Y., the eminent composer and distinguished musician,' read Y., the idiotic organ-grinder and clumsy and impudent plagiarist.' "-Chicago

-A heroic deed was that of two hunters, who walked and carried a woman who had broken her leg eighty miles, and stopping but twice on the road to eat, until she was brought to a place where a surgeon could attend her. She is now getting along nicely at the Com-mercial Hotel in this city.—Yellowstone Journal.

-It is estimated that the humbug marriage associations have swept up $2,-000,000 from various parts of Texas, a sum more than sufficient to run the pubic schools since the first association began business.
